

READ OUT IN PRINT

SPRING BREAK FUN

Spring Break is a great chance to explore different types of reading possibilities. Go to your local grocery, hardware, or home supply store. Purchase a print newspaper, pick up a copy of the local thrift (ad paper), or purchase a magazine.

See what is printed, how often they print, where it's published, what it costs, and what type of content they utilize (advertisements, short stories, picture collage, etc.).

Talk with a family member or friend about what you have read and if the content was valuable or helpful.

*Any kind of reading (whether a short newspaper ad, magazine article, or book is valuable to you boosting important life skills.

BONUS: SHARE YOUR MAGAZINE OR PAPER WITH SOMEONE ELSE ONCE YOU'RE DONE READING IT.
